

Working to include children & young people from BME communities in Northern Ireland

NCB NI & Youthnet would like to invite you to a free pilot training course that aims to provide participants with a greater awareness of issues faced by children and young people (CYP) from BME communities living in Northern Ireland.

It will also provide some practical tips on how to ensure that a diverse range of children and young people are engaged and made to feel welcome and included when participating within organisations.

Learning outcomes of the course:

By the end of this training participants will:

1. Understand the terms culture and ethnicity
2. Have identified opportunities and challenges to working with BME young people in NI.
3. Better understand the issues faced with engaging CYP from BME backgrounds.
4. Have identified steps to use to make their own organisation more welcoming and inclusive to children and young people from BME backgrounds.

When: Thursday 27th January 2011 (time to be confirmed)

Where: NCB NI, Albany House, 73-75 Great Victoria Street, Belfast, BT2 7AF (next door to Gingerroot Indian restaurant)

If you would like to attend this training session please contact at cadrain@ncb.org.uk. We will provide sandwiches and tea/coffee, so if you have any particular dietary requirements, do let us know.

Please feel free to pass this flyer on to anyone who you think might be interested in attending. We look forward to seeing you there!
