

25/2/2008

Dear

The Peoples History Initiative and the School of Education, Queen's University of Belfast are pleased to invite you to attend a lecture on

'Steps to Partition: From Home Rule to a Divided Ireland, 1900-25'

By Dr. Eamon Phoenix historian, journalist and lecturer.

This lecture takes place on Thursday the 6th March at 10.15 am in the Canada Room, Queen's University. (The Canada Room is in the Lanyon Building of Queen's University. (If you go in the main entrance of Queens at the front the Canada Room is on the left – it will be signposted. It is on the first floor – there is a staircase and a lift. The lift is inside the Welcome Centre which is also on the left. If you need directions on the day ring me on my mobile – 07973778890.)

Refreshments will be served after the lecture. The event should be finished by 1pm.

There are limited places at this lecture so please contact the UPC on 02890 330131 and leave your name and your number or email me at kmccartney@upclearn.org to book places as soon as possible to ensure you have places. Try to contact the UPC before Monday 3rd March if possible. If you have any questions at all ring me on 02890 330131 or email kmccartney@upclearn.org.

Yours sincerely,

Karen Mc Cartney

Karen Mc Cartney
(Lecturer Adult and Community Education)

